Marana, Giovanni Paolo, 1642-1693.

The eight volumes of letters writ by a Turkish spy, who liv'd five and forty years undiscover'd at Paris; giving an impartial account to the Divan at Constantinople of the most remarkable transactions of Europe; and discovering several intrigues and secrets of the Christian courts, (especially of that of France) continued from the year 1687, to the year 1692. Written originally in Arabic, translated into Italian, from thence into English. And now published with a large historical preface and index to illustrate the whole. By the translator of the first volume. London, G. Strahan, etc., 1734.

Vol. 1: 224 ed. v. 2-8: 10th ed.
Vol. 1 has both general and special t.p.; v. 2-8 have special t.p. only. Authorities agree that the first part of the work, published in Paris in 1684, was written by Marana. The remainder has been ascribed to different Englishmen, among them Dr. Robert Milder and William Bradshaw. It is probable however that Milder simply edited the English translation, made by Bradshaw, of the original Italian manuscript, of Gentlemen's magazine, 1640-41; also, Dict. of nat. biog., v. 6, p. 185; v. 37, p. 366.
